

Pan-African musical sensation, Soulfège, brings youth empowerment movement to West Coast

WEST COAST, USA&CANADA -- Critically-acclaimed Pan-African musical sensation, Soulfège, brings the Sweet Mother Tour (SMT) movement, an internationally recognized project that uses the tools of popular culture (music, film, literature, and the internet) to connect young people around the world, out West this October for a series of performances and online virtual workshops in Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Seattle, and Vancouver, BC. The tour will culminate in a performance to benefit Amnesty International, broadcast live via the Internet from Vancouver, BC on October 28th, 2006.

Join Soulfège online or out West this October as they bring the power of the SMT movement to Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Seattle, and Vancouver, BC. Broadcast live via the internet, people around the world will be able to tune in to the group's culminating performance as part of Amnesty International Fundraiser music party on October 28th, 2006. To register on line, visit:
<http://sweetmother.org/?q=user/register>.

Check details below to find out what events are happening in each city and online.

For media press release information about the tour: Click Here >>