This collaboration-building event and concert will bring together local youth artists and entertainers with a global network of socially conscious individuals, intentions and action. Be prepared to network, learn, share and dance!

Soulfege, a unique musical fusion of African highlife, hip-hop and funk will be kicking off their Sweet Mother Tour (SMT) here in Seattle on Saturday, January 13th, 2007 at Town Hall, located at 1119 Eighth Avenue (at Seneca Street). The doors will open at 6:30.

The Sweet Mother Tour launch event will initiate a Northwest network that will collaborate with the SMT world community. SMT is an international project started by a group of artists, activists, and educators from around the globe. We use the tools of popular culture ? music, film, and television ? as an empowering force to stimulate positive change in the images and reality of Africa and her people throughout the Diaspora. "Sweet Mother Tour 2007" will utilize cutting-edge telecommunications technologies to provide a digital bridge and video portal between youth in each of the countries we visit.
